Programs and Activities of Akam Foundation & Drishti : A Queer Collective

Q-Drishti : Summer School on Gender

A 5 days extensive workshop on gender and sexuality, feminism was organised at the Chandraprabha Saikiani Feminist Library & Resource Centre from 23rd June to 27th June 2023. The workshop was based on building a diverse perspective on gender, sexuality among the youth of Assam. Participants from different parts of Assam joined the workshop. Sessions were designed on a participatory way on themes of gender, sexuality, patriarchy, masculinity, social exclusion, intersectionality, relevance of feminism and legal rights. Dr. Anita Boruah, Dr. Pranjal Buragohain, Dr. Mayuri Sharma Borua, Indranee Kalita, Dr. Debojane Borah was invited as the guest resource person for the workshop.

Youth Exchange Programs

We have conducted a 2 days exchange program on leadership development at Dispur College on 12th June, 2023 and Tinsukia College on 2nd and 3rd August 2023. It was facilitated by the leaders of Drishti Collective where sessions were based on identification of issues, community mobilization, stakeholder involvement and advocacy. These programs have been the medium to carry forward gender justice around the educational institutes.

College Outreach Programs

Akam Foundation and Drishti: A Queer Collective together mobilized more than 6000+ youths within the colleges and Universities of Assam on Gender Sensitization. These outreach programs had helped in creating a huge awareness among the educational institutions.

These programs not only helped us to reach to community in general but helped also to build long term relationships with educational institutes in Assam in terms of developing a safety net for queer community in Assam.
